

The following are examples of things that may appear to be or could lead to criminal behavior...

- Persons trying vehicle door handles or peering into the vehicle.
- Person shining flashlights into vehicles at night.
- Strange, unknown persons looking into residence windows.
- Persons, that you have not seen before, loitering in your parking lot for long periods of time.
- Someone inside of a parked vehicle in your parking lot late at night for no apparent reason.
- Vehicles that are being driven slowly down a street or through a parking lot.
- Persons wearing dark colored clothing and walking down your street or through your parking lot late at night.
- Unknown persons looking at your residence or vehicle or staring at you.
- An unoccupied vehicle with doors/trunk open or dome light on at night.
- A window screen on the ground and the window open or glass broken.
- A stranger entering your neighbor's home while it is unoccupied.

CALL
979.764.3600

HEAR IT!
SEE IT!
REPORT IT!

